Protours is a tour operator with over 20 years' experience in helping build passengers dreams, all while assisting clients through personalized and professional staff. We believe that client satisfaction and distinction are the base for development and the key to success. This in turn, is funded on know-how, personalization, quality, value and good consultancy.

Over our 3 different offices throughout the country: Santiago, Puerto Varas and Punta Arenas we believe in the passion for traveling. Rather a group of people or an individual will be traveling for leisure or adventurous experiences our wide portfolio and tailor-made options can help fulfill any needs. Chile is a unique place filled with inspiration and charm that provides an authentic and meaningful trip. Protours hopes to share these known and hidden wonders to each of you.

LEISURE

Protours specializes in the design and implementation of programs based on our clients desires and requests creating unforgettable experiences. Our goal is to generate new and innovative itineraries that showcase the culture and beauty of Chile. We hope to inspire our clients continuously and encourage each traveler to explore the unknown discovering unique and extraordinary places.

At Protours we have extensive local knowledge, experience and resources, specializing in tailor-made trips. Thanks to our professional staff and exclusive agreements with suppliers, accommodation providers and transport operators we can offer a variety of options for the independent traveler.
